In the abstract, line 11, the recitation "according to the rules of play of the wagering game" has been deleted.

The original title "Keep-em Coming Card Game" has been deleted and the following new title, --A Wagering Card Game—has been entered.

Reasons For Allowance

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the cited references alone or in combination teach the claimed "the at least one player taking at least one mandatory additional card attempting to receive a first additional card having a specific relationship in rank to the single card in the at least one player hand, the specific relationship being selected from the group consisting of cards being sequentially higher in rank and sequentially lower in rank", "when the player has elected to take no more additional cards or has taken a maximum number of additional cards allowed, attempting again to receive successive additional cards having the specific relationship to a previous additional card, but has not taken a card that busts the at least one player's hand by not having the specific relationship to the previous additional card, the dealer takes at least one mandatory additional cards attempting again to receive successive additional cards having the specific relationship to the previous additional
